MILLER ACT PUT ON BALLOT

Here and There

Editorial By ALEX. H. WASHBURN

MORE of Arkansas' quarter-million eligible voters will go to the polls this Tuesday than ever before in the history of a general election. They will be voting this time not for candidates but for laws—part of the trend of this day and age to bring government closer to the people.

Kansas City Cops, Boss-Ridden, Failed to Stop Gangsters

Three Officers Indicted in Union Station Massacre Probe

CLIQUE CAME FIRST Lieutenant Said He "Owed All" to Pendergast Organization

KANSAS CITY.—(AP)—Charges of inefficiency were leveled at the Police Department of Kansas City by a federal grand jury Sunday while Adam Richetti, accused trigger man in the union station slayings, was returned here from Ohio to face the government's questions.

The grand jury, investigating the slayings of four peace officers and their prisoner at the union station plaza here June 17, 1933, returned three indictments Saturday night against police officers.

His report to Judge Merrill E. Otis charged the police department "on the date of the massacre at the union station in June of 1933, unquestionably was not as efficient or not as effective in the discharge of its duties as it should have been. In many respects, this same situation applies during the whole period of time covered by our investigation."

Indicted on charges of perjury were E. C. Reppert, director of police at the time of the slayings; Thomas J. Higgins, present chief of detectives, and Lieut. George Rayson.

Richetti, sole survivor of the gangland trio held responsible for the station machine gunnings—was brought into Kansas City through the same union station whose vaulted roof resounded to the fatal gunfire last year. Federal, county and city officers held sub-machine guns, riot guns and rifles ready to avert any possible recurrence of the notorious "massacre."

Richetti, manacled and in a strait-jacket a she alighted from a Chicago train, was taken to the Jackson county jail for questioning and his appearance Monday before the grand jury.

Reppert was captured near Wells-ville, Ohio, October 20, after a shooting episode in which Charles A. (Prety) Boyl Floyd, escaped, only to meet his death at the hands of a posse of federal agents and police two days later.

Perjury Alleged

The indictments against Reppert and the two police officials alleged they had given false testimony before the grand jury. Higgins and Rayson declined to comment. Reppert could not be reached.

Reppert was declared in the true bill to have stated to B. H. Tahrman, then a sergeant of detectives, shortly after the slayings:

"This is not a police matter. Hands off. Have nothing to do with it." The indictment was based on his denial of having said this.

The grand jury charged that "criminal mobs and racketeers exist here composed wholly of men who permanently live in Kansas City," and pointed to "unbridled gambling in almost every conceivable form."

Referring to the dominant Kansas City political organization headed by Thomas J. Pendergast, the grand jury quoted Lieutenant Rayson as having told Kansas officials he owed "a greater duty" to the Pendergast organization than to the police department.

It's too bad the laundry can't iron out your troubles, too.

A spokesman for the local schools said: "The adoption of changed viewpoints in education consistent with the new world ideals of justice and equality of opportunity will depend upon the intelligence and sincerity with which the American people participate in this program of educational recovery and improvement."

Special Election

Ballot Had 1 Name

Thomas C. McRae Sole Candidate in Congress Vote of 1885

Coinciding with Tuesday's general election, C. A. Barnes of this city, while looking through some old relics in his home, came across a ballot of 1885.

Only one name appeared on the ballot, and that of the late governor Thomas C. McRae. At that time the people were voting in a special election.

The ballot read:

"Democratic ticket. Special election, Sept. 7, 1885. For congress—Thomas C. McRae of Nevada county."

Farm Outlook Is Declared Better

Reduced Supplies Point to Increasing Farm Price Structure

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Generally improved conditions in the agricultural industry during the coming year were predicted Sunday by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics in its annual outlook report.

The bulky prognostication, covering all phases of farming, from foreign demand to farm family living possibilities, was issued at the close of a week's conference with agricultural economists from 30 states, Department of Agriculture officials, and leaders.

An Apology

In reporting the tragic death of Mrs. Louie Frontz, who lived on the Shover Springs road, The Star last Friday made a regrettable error as to the statement of funeral arrangements.

The statement was corrected Saturday—but the newspaper feels it has done an injustice to the Frontz family and relatives.

And we are therefore calling our readers' attention to a mistake and a correction, and we are making this public apology to the Frontz family and relatives.

HOPE STAR

Hope Looks to Victory Over Prescott, First in Four Years

Powerful Bobcat Eleven Looms Up as Big Favorite in Annual Classic to Be Played Here Friday Night

With blood in their eyes and revenge in their hearts, the Hope High School Bobcats Monday prepared for the "biggest" game of their schedule—the traditional and colorful classic—with Prescott's Curly Wolves, in Hope Friday night, November 9.

Only once since 1928 have the Bobcats been victorious after the annual Armistice Day game was renewed that year following a break in relations. Here is the record since 1928:

1928—Prescott 25; Hope 0.
1929—Prescott 40; Hope 0.
1930—Prescott 0; Hope 7.
1931—Prescott 20; Hope 0.
1932—Prescott 41; Hope 0.
1933—Prescott 19; Hope 0.

The 1933 season saw the Bobcats triumph over their ancient foe on the Prescott field. Every season since then the Bobcats have been trampled.

But this year, in the Ed Wynn parlance, it appears that the "program is going to be different."

With a big, fast and hard-charging line, supplemented by as fine a set of backs any team in South Arkansas can boast of, the Bobcats are seeking to "square off" for those bitter defeats.

The players, students and Hope gridiron fans are anxiously awaiting the Friday night tussle, for they believe "this year's big red and white team has 'got what it takes.'"

But anything might happen in a Prescott game. The locals are up "spells" early in the second quarter with a broken collar bone.

As the second half started, Hargis, fullback, went out with an injured shoulder. Three more plays were made and the game was halted, Madison going out with an injured nose.

A few minutes later Frank Drake, tackle, was helped off the field with an injured knee. Hopes of a victory vanished and the Bobcats came home on the short end of a 19 to 0 score.

Depression Passes

Just as It Came

Episcopal Bishop Praises Spiritual Power of the People

LITTLE ROCK.—The depression is lifting and prosperity is coming back just as the tide comes in after it has left the shore littered with refuse, the Right Rev. Robert Nelson Spencer of Kansas City, Mo., bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of West Missouri, said in his sermon Sunday morning, opening a week's celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Trinity cathedral, Seventeenth and Spring streets, at the cathedral.

Return of the tide of prosperity is not being brought about through some dramatic move but, because "American people are coming to their senses," he said. During the depression, he said, people have seen the dark side of life.

He referred to the revolution 150 years ago in France when several thousand people were homeless and had no employment.

"If you had been there," Bishop Spencer remarked, "you could have drunk blood without stopping."

Such a condition has not developed in this country, he added, not because the people fear soldiers or police, but because "there is more in them than a breathing animal—there is a soul."

"Never in the history of America, from the time of Columbus, the Revolutionary war and the pioneer period have the people been more beautiful in patience—violent to themselves perhaps but not to others—and you should thank God for this beauty," he said.

Dr. T. F. Hughes Given Verdict for Injuries

ARKADELPHIA, Ark.—Dr. T. F. Hughes, of Prescott, Friday won a verdict in Clark county circuit court for $35,000 damages against the Air Reduction company whose truck is alleged to have collided with his auto at a road intersection in this county near Gardon and injured his back severely.

Dr. Hughes was brought into court on a cot. Eleven jurors voted in favor of the award, one failing to support Sunday which resulted in a new trial of six men.

The drivers demanded higher wages and union recognition.

Japan Is Firm on Oil Monopoly in Manchukuo State

Empire Refuses to Heed Foreign Protests Against Seizure

ENGLAND, AMERICA

British Company and Standard Oil to Lose Asiatic Properties

TOKYO, Japan.—(AP)—Japan disclaimed all responsibility for the Manchukuo oil controversy Monday and advised the protesting American and British oil interests to enter into direct negotiations with the Manchukuo government.

This attitude was disclosed in a note answering the United States government's second representation on the subject.

Disregarding foreign charges that the oil monopoly scheme is discriminatory, the Manchukuo government has instituted steps to assume early possession of the extensive marketing installations of the Standard Oil and British Asiatic Petroleum companies.

It is understood that the Japanese note states that the government is not concerned, terming the situation "a domestic affair of Manchukuo."

Republicans Lose Hope in Election

National Election Tuesday Merely a "Warmup" for 1936 Campaign

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—As the New Deal verged on its first national test at the polls, it became evident that Tuesday's results would be only a signal for a much more profound and lasting battle over Roosevelt leadership and policies.

The only question to be answered definitely now, it appeared, is whether the already powerful Democratic grip on congress actually will be strengthened. Not even the most optimistic Republicans hoped to do more than make inroads on the Democratic majorities in both branches.

Whatever margin is voted, it will far from settle the New Deal dispute that has seethed in state after state and broken party lines in many. It was indicated that the pre-1936 barrage on the administration may be started before the week is out.

It is in states where the New Deal issue has been out and out, such as New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Maryland, that the Democrats have their highest hopes of overturning sitting Republican senators.

Even in Pennsylvania, which has not elected a Democratic senator since before the Civil war, the Roosevelt ranks hold hope of defeating David A. Reed and electing Joseph F. Guffy. Reed has been laboring the New Deal so constantly in the Senate and in the campaign that for him to win against a national sweep like 1932 would put him in an exceptionally strong party position for presidential nomination. Conversely, if the New Deal shattered Republicanism in Pennsylvania, it would measurably increase the head-start that President Roosevelt naturally has for 1936.

$9,000 Is Paid for Hempstead Cattle

Federal Livestock Checks Released Here Over Week-End

Approximately $9,000 was released Saturday and Monday to Hempstead county farmers in payment of cattle purchased by the federal government, Ruffin White, of the county agent's office, announced.

Mr. White said that amount represented the full payment for the cattle. A portion of the Hempstead cattle were shipped to other sections, some were condemned and killed here, while some are being pastured on Hempstead county farms.

The dead included:

The engineer and fireman of the freight, and three other trainmen.

The engineer of the single locomotive also was reported dying.

Bulletins

CHICAGO.—(P)—Samuel Insull, deposed head of his 2-billion-dollar utility system, went back to the stand Monday to answer more questions propounded by the government. The move came as a surprise. When the mail fraud case entered its fifth week Saturday Prosecutor Leslie Salter apparently had finished the cross-examination.

SEATTLE, Wash.—(P)—The harbor radio received a message early Monday asking aid for the Japanese freighter Michio Maru which went ashore near Gale Al-bern, B. C., in a heavy gale and a rough sea.

"John Doe" Loses Bond in City Court

Mysterious Unknown Arraigned Second time for Drunkenness

The mysterious "John Doe" appeared in the municipal court news Monday for the second time this year. Last spring he was "stuck" $10 on a drunkenness charge.

The case Monday was identical. It was listed on the docket as: "John Doe (name unknown), drunkenness, forfeited cash bond of $10."

Other drunkenness cases in which defendants either pleaded guilty and were fined $10 or failed to appear in court and forfeited $10 were:

Arthur Miles, Sid Lewis, Frank Maddison, Bill Phillips, Henry Smith, Jack Gray, Bob Phillips and Lawrence Martin.

Another drunkenness charge was against Martin Guthrie. He stood trial, was found guilty and fined $15 and costs. He filed notice of appeal to circuit court and was released under $10 bond.

Results of other cases: B. L. Spriggs, petit larceny, fined $10 and costs and sentenced to 30 days jail.

Joe Ed Smith, gaming, fined $10. Notice of appeal filed. Bond fixed at $10.

George Williams, assault and battery, $5 fine suspended during good behavior.

Buddy Summers, carnal abuse of a child, dismissed.

Moses Powell, grand larceny, found not guilty.

Several cases were continued until next Monday.

Talks in Sleep, Is Hit With an Axe

Common Law Wife Slashes Man Who Mumbles About Other Woman

NEW YORK.—(P)—The mumbblings of Philip Effrus, 33, awoke his common law wife before dawn Saturday. He was talking in his sleep, talking in endearing tones to the unknown woman whom she knew to be her rival. She jumped from her bed and rushed to the closet. The glistening are of an ax cut short his dream. Effrus went to Lincoln hospital, Bronx, with a deep gash in his neck.

Walking slowly, holding her hand to her side, Mrs. Ida Effrus, 34, who said she had lived with Effrus 14 years, came before Magistrate Richard F. McKinney and was held without bail on a short affidavit charging felonious assault, for hearing Thursday.

She had slept little during the night, the woman said, because not many hours before her common law husband had told her he loved another woman, and even took some of his clothes to this woman's house.

"Don't be too hard on her," Effrus told detectives.

"What did she hit me with?" he demanded. He was told.

"Holy smoke!" he gasped and lapsed into unconsciousness.

Texarkana Salary Bill Wins Right to Be Voted Upon

"Sticker Voting" Ruled Out for Arkansas General Election

BIG VOTE EXPECTED

State and Local Act Furnish Main Issue of Campaign

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—The Arkansas Supreme Court Monday held that petitioners for the Miller County Salary Act had complied with all requirements of the initiative and referendum amendment, and affirmed the Miller chancery court in refusing to halt publication of the ballot file on Tuesday's election ticket.

For the third time since 1924 the court held the conveyance of 193 acres of land in Ouachita county by Mrs. Mary Graves to two daughters to be valid.

The daughters in turn had conveyed the land to others, and finally to the Simms Oil company. Mrs. Graves sued for oil taken from the property.

The appellate court in affirming the chancery court held that the lower court should have granted the Simms company an instructed verdict.

E. R. Winton won a reversal of a Clay chancery ruling, thereby enabling him to pursue his suit contesting the nomination at the August primary of W. O. Irby for Clay county judge.

Big Vote Predicted

LITTLE ROCK.—(P)—The method of voting by sticker or rubber-stamp was formally ruled out Monday by Attorney General W. M. Futrell, as election officials predicted the largest general election vote Tuesday in the history of the state.

Referendum matters, both state and local, commanded the chief interest of the estimated 255,000 qualified voters.

Both parties claimed victories in the Third congressional district where Representative Claude A. Fuller, Democrat, is opposed by the Rev. Pat Murphy, Republican candidate.

The only contest for state office is that of Governor W. M. Futrell, opposed by G. C. Ledbetter of Hamburg, Republican and J. R. Butler, of Pan-burn, Socialist.

The ruling from the attorney general's office was prompted by a plan in several counties, where efforts to initiate a local office salary bill had failed, to vote anyway by the use of stickers or a rubber stamp.

5,663 Women Get Jobs From FERA

$820,447 Spent for Rural Rehabilitation Since April 1

Total advances of $820,447 have been made to rural rehabilitation clients, another report showed, during the period from April 1 to September 30.

Now summer's gifts are gone, the dainty rose no longer pours her perfume to her June. But still the leafless thornbush scatters glow. And sunshine floods the calm November noon.

How great and good this world with all its chill and change! Its storms of woe, its human ill. Cast only passing shadows from their sky.

And what dear sweetness even in the sigh That sends our memories to a vanished day.

All wonderful, from youth's flight in to high, Far heavens of hope on fancy's scornful wings, Down to the dusty sod where blithely comes

The sparrow eager for his daily crumbs. Ah, God's best star is this: a crumb to pay

The toll of life—free from this day to take Its sunshine's gift—soul free, free from heart's ache!—Selected.

Three Classes of Men, Sermon Topic

Rev. Mrs. Beasley Addresses Large Audience Sunday Night

The Rev. Mrs. Beasley preached to a large audience at the Hope Gospel Tabernacle Sunday night on the subject, "What time is it on the Dial of Prophecy?" from the text, "Watchman, what of the night? The Watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye return, come." Isaiah 21:11, 12.

"There are three classes," Mrs. Beasley said, "who don't care what time it is, prophetically. Children, but unaccountable; the pleasure-mad, being lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God; and the fool-hearted, who are recklessly willing to take a chance."

"There are also three classes who do care: the aged, those who have topped the meridian of life and can look back and see the terrible effects of sin and selfish pleasure seeking; the troubled, who are in need of divine help; and those who have 'Oil in their vessels' and are ready for the coming of the Lord."

"The plans of practically all churches are agreed that we are living in the evening time of the Gentile age. Disciples asked Jesus shortly before His crucifixion, 'Tell us, what shall be the sign of the coming, and of the end of the world?' (Matt. 24:3). He gave them numerous indications of the end of time including the parable of the fig tree. It is generally conceded that the Jewish nation is the 'Fig Tree' Christ referred to. The Jews are still God's chosen people and were to be a light to the nations and to the Gentiles. They are also God's time piece, and prophecy concerning them is being fulfilled in our own time, the 'Fig Tree' is budding, in that the Jews are rapidly returning to Palestine, land that has been barren for centuries is beginning to 'Blossom as the rose,' all of which indicates the soon coming of Christ and the close of the Gentile Age. The vision of dry bones of Ezekiel 37 also refers to the coming back to life of the Jewish nation."

"Other signs of the end of time are the apostate condition of many churches today, having a form of Godliness but denying the power thereof; denial of the virgin birth of Christ, the awful hour in which we live, the best minds of the world baffled, the heavy war clouds in Europe and Japan. As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be at the coming of the Son of man."

There will be afternoon services at 2:30 as well as evening services at this week.

FARM OUTLOOK IS

Main points in the bureau's predictions were:

1. Greatly reduced supplies of most farm products will be seen, which, with improvement in consumer purchasing power, will probably bring a higher level of farm income during the first half of 1934. This despite low foreign demand for American farm products.

2. Farm products will be larger than this year's unusually small production.

3. This year's higher prices may tend to stimulate excessive planting of some crops not under production control next year.

4. Continued improvement in demand next year will depend primarily on recovery in the durable goods industries.

5. "Small improvement in the purchasing power of farm families may, in general, be expected."

6. Prices of goods used in farm production are expected to average somewhat higher, at least until June, 1935.

7. The farm credit situation "will continue to show gradual improvement above the bad conditions of the past several years."

8. Next year's wheat crop is expected to result in an export surplus with hanging close to an export basis.

9. Substantial advances in prices of most animals is expected, with no material expansion in livestock numbers sighted before 1935.

10. Next year's wool clip will be the smallest in several years with prices dependent on world production.

11. "A general favorable" outlook is seen for poultry raisers with prices remaining at seasonally high levels until next summer.

12. An unfavorable outlook is sighted for dairymen because of the shortage of hay and grain.

Birth Registration Conducted by FERA

Little Rock Workers Tabulating Returns Filed by Parents

LITTLE ROCK.—A thorough inventory of births occurring in Arkansas during the past twelve months is now being made at the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health, following impetus received from the six-weeks "Register Your Baby" campaign which is being carried on by the Vital Statistics Bureau, the Federal Bureau of the Census, and the Arkansas Emergency Relief Administration.

Checking and re-checking the hundreds of cards received daily at the Bureau of Vital Statistics, a group of FERA workers is testing the accuracy of present birth records of the State. The cards were mailed a few weeks ago to every family in State, requesting certain information concerning children born in the last year. They were returned to Washington and from there forwarded to Little Rock.

When the cards are checked against present birth records and show, as they do in many cases, that some births have not been registered with the Bureau of Vital Statistics, steps are taken to have the births registered. Letters are sent by W. L. Austin, Director of the Census, to the parents of these children, and when the letters are in turn answered with further information about the children, the births are then registered and birth certificates sent to the parents.

"Parents seem to be interested in the efforts made to obtain better registration in the State," said Dr. W. B. Grayson, State Health Officer and director of the campaign, "and they are urged to reply promptly when they receive a letter from Mr. Austin."
